DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Exaplin.

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation

I believe that the Media is driving all the frenzy around the issues that are plaguing our country. Now that Trump is our President, he is enforcing laws that have been in place since the Obama administration. I think that people that do not agree with President Trump, are going to pick at everything he does. That is why, we live in such an amazing place. We can talk about our differences in opinion out in the open. President Trump has only been in office for two weeks, and it is his job to unite people. People sometimes are afraid of what they don't understand and even the unknown. I think if President Trump would come out and explain things to the American people, everyone would feel much better. I did hear on the news, that the First Lady, is going to focus on Cyber Bullying. I am excited to see how she will leave her mark on the Trump administration. I would like to see how President Trump will fix our insurance, and also how he will increase jobs.
